“ I am so sorry for our loss. She was a wonderful, caring, loving woman that I was privileged to call my Aunt Dean. I talked with her around Christmas and had intended to go visit with her and Uncle WL. But as intentions go, something always comes up and we never get those things done or loved ones visited until it's too late. I know she will be missed terribly.

Don't think of her as gone away her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.
