“ I have so many memories with Ann...Trump Rallies. NASCAR races, long phone calls both good and bad...I remember how supportive she was when my mom passed away...I remember watching Brenden Frasier getting his Academy award and Ann and I both crying tears of joy being in 2 separate states...Its been just a few short months since she's been gone but everyday she's in my heart and thoughts and I miss her dearly...So many times I have wanted to call her phone just to hear her voice and to know it will be a very long time...

So many memories of Ann run through my mind...Meeting in Kansas City to go to a race, getting together in Texas ... To go to a race...Coming to Iowa and eating German food, watching my Giants beat her Dodgers and texting back and forth between her and Angel during the game...Ann was a one in a million and once in a lifetime friend who became my sister...We laughed and shed tears over the phone many times....My heart has been shattered into a million pieces, and once it's healed, there will be an even bigger hole...

Ann, I love you and miss you and you will always be loved by me...Have fun with Coco, my mom, my dad and my brother...I'll see you when it's time...

To the Seay family...Please know my thoughts, heart and prayers are with you...💔💔💔
