

Anthony Todd Clark

February 5, 1986 - January 7, 2025

Anthony Todd Clark, age 38, of Littleville, passed away on Tuesday, January 07, 2025, at his residence.

Anthony was a diehard video gamer who enjoyed watching anime and talking smack with his friends. He loved to fix up old cars and loved having motorcycles, especially his yellow Ducati motorcycle. He enjoyed working on computers. He was the type of man who would do absolutely anything for the people he loved. He loved his family, especially his daughters. He loved doing things with his kids, from gaming to spending time on their activities.

He is survived by his wife who he spent the last 24 years with, Heather (Nix) Clark; daughters, Destiny Clark, Emma Clark; mother, Pam Willingham; sister, Kim Bennett (Aaron); nephew, Lane Bennett; friend like a brother, Apollo Proctor; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins; Mother & Father-in-law, David and Rena Baxter, sister-in-law, Misty & husband Shannon and nephew Dakota

He was preceded in death by his dad, Richard Clark; his grandparents; and his best friend, Adam Baker.

A service is not planned at this time.

The family was not expecting this sudden death and sincerely needs some help with the funeral expenses. They ask that you consider donating toward the funeral expense of Anthony, c/o Spry Memorial Chapel, PO Box 246, Russellville, AL 35653 or 256-332-1122.
