

Barbara Jean Faulkner

February 24, 1937 - November 7, 2010

Barbara Jean Barry Faulkner, 73, died Sunday, November 07, 2010 at her residence. A native of Wichita, Kansas, she was a longtime resident of Phil Campbell, AL. Barbara had been an employee of Northwest-Shoals Community College for 25 years as a secretary in the library. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Phil Campbell where she had served as a Sunday School teacher, Discipleship Training teacher, member of the Women's Missionary Union, and a member of the choir. Barbara was known for her enthusiasm, laughter, and love of people. She was preceded in death by her parents, Bernard & Lattisha (Lottie) Halstead Barry; and her brother, Bernard Barry, Jr. Barbara is survived by her husband of 55 years, Billy Isom Faulkner; daughters, Sondra Jean Faulkner Yielding and husband, Nathan Evans, and Sara Latricia Faulkner; granddaughters, Melonie Yielding and Ashley Yielding, and great-grandson, Gabriel Yielding. Barbara is also survived by a sister, Julie Barry Harbour; sister-in-law, Marilyn Barry; a nephew, Kevin Barry; a niece, Theresa Harbour; and a host of friends. Her family will receive friends at Spry Memorial Chapel, Russellville, from 6:00 ? 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 10, 2010. The funeral will be Thursday, November 11, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Phil Campbell. Mrs. Faulkner will lie in state at the church one hour prior to the service. Officiating at the service will be Dr. Scott Moore, Rev. Tim Haney, and Rev. Jerry Hester. Burial will follow at Liberty Hill Cemetery, Phil Campbell. Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.

Tribute Wall

BH

“ Enjoyed working with Barbara during the time I attended Northwest, 1982-1984. ”

---

Brian Hargett - November 09, 2010 at 12:00 AM