Our mother has always tried to do the right thing, but she was still human. She taught and showed her children how to sacrifice, how to love, and how to stand by your loved ones. She also taught us how to take life's sorrows even the loss of three children. Thanks Mom, we love you always. The family would like to extend a special thanks to the Burns Nursing Home and staff for the wonderful care and kindness that you have shown to our mother. We personally know of your care and kindness going beyond what might have been expected of you. Thank you so very much to each one of you.
