Betty Ruth Glenn, age 84, of Russellville, went to be with her Lord on Friday, January 11, 2019 at Cypress Cove Nursing Home of Muscle Shoals.

Our mother was a very giving and caring woman to anyone who needed her help. She was a loving and compassionate animal advocate. She was a very funny person, who said exactly what she thought. She loved her church and was a devout Christian who loved her family very much. She enjoyed the spotlight of being the first patient transferred to the new North Alabama Medical Center from ECM and the write up in the paper.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Shirley Thomason (husband, Ric), Carl Thompson (wife, Tammi), Tim Thompson (wife, Tami), and Darren Thompson (wife, Janice); step-daughter, Brenda Britnell (husband, Thomas) and family; 9 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; siblings, Patsy, Elaine, Charles, Donald, and Ralph; and a host of nieces & nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John Samuel Glenn; parents, Benjamin Graham and Viva Dukeminier Graham; and three brothers.

The pallbearers will be friends from church.

Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.
