

Betty Jean Oliver

May 8, 1939 - January 21, 2019

Betty Jean Oliver, age 79, of Russellville, passed away on Monday, January 21, 2019 at North Alabama Medical Center.

She was born in East Prentiss, Mississippi on May 08, 1939. She grew up in Colbert County, Alabama and attended Rock Creek School. She met William "Junior" Oliver in Spring Park in Tuscumbia and they married in 1959. They made their home in the Mountain Star community of Russellville. She was a homemaker and was very talented in sewing, quilting, crafting, gardening, cooking, and baking.

A graveside service will be held at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, January 26, 2019 at Bethlehem Cemetery in Russellville.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William Oliver, Jr., an infant daughter; parents, Wilson and Floria Taylor; brother, Charles Vester Taylor; and sister, Dorothy Reeps.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Phillip Oliver (Vancouver, WA), Lynn Oliver (Russellville), and Lisa Massey (Russellville); sisters, Virginia Smallwood (Tuscumbia), and Linda Delfunt (Jasper).

Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.

Tribute Wall

GS

“ Phillip - So sorry to hear about your mother. Sorry I couldn't make the service, was a bit under the weather. Wish I could have seen you and Michael while you were here. I miss you both. Love you.
Grace

Grace Simpson - January 29, 2019 at 12:00 AM

JK

“ A lovely tribute to your mother Phillip. Our thoughts are with you at this time.

John & Judy Knoten - January 25, 2019 at 12:00 AM

CM

“ Sending condolences for your loss. My heart is with you at this sad time.

Cyndia & Steven Montgomery - January 24, 2019 at 12:00 AM

RF

“ Randy and I want to send our deepest sympathy to Lisa, Lynn and Phillip for the loss of their mother. We have many fond memories of Aunt Betty and Uncle Junior.

Randy & Karen Taylor and family - January 24, 2019 at 12:00 AM