“ To the family, we did not know Chris, but we do know Rhonda and was with her when she got the tragic news. We would like to extend our heart felt sympathy to your entire family. I know the Lord will comfort you and give you peace and understanding, just trust him. When you feel sad just let your mind and heart reminisce of all the wonderful memories he left behind. I can say this because my daughter at a young age went home to be with our Lord and Savior, and I visit her sweet memories for comfort. God bless all of you.
