

Cindy Diane Cooke

December 13, 1963 - July 24, 2014

Cindy Cooke, 50, Muscle Shoals, left this earth to walk with Jesus on Thursday, July 24, 2014 after an extended illness. Cindy was preceded in death by her father, John (Johnny) Cooke. She is survived by her mother, Martha Fay Cooke; her brother, Todd Cooke; her sister, Tammie Gargis; several friends and relatives; and a special cousin, Mary Janice Martinez. The visitation will be from 11:00 a.m. ? 11:45 a.m. Saturday, July 26, 2014 at Spry Memorial Chapel, Russellville. A graveside service will be at 12:00 noon at Knights of Pythias Cemetery in Russellville. Chaplain Steven Butler from Hospice Advantage will be officiating. The family would like to extend a special thanks to the nurses of Hospice Advantage, especially our R.N., Gena and Dr. Brad Ginevan for the love and care of our family. Cindy never missed an opportunity to share the gospel of Jesus and was continually helping others even before herself. She will be greatly missed but she is at peace and out of pain, and with Jesus. Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.

“ Prayers for Cindy's family and friends. She provided encouragement to others around her when it would have been easier to dwell on her pain and suffering. Thanks for your friendship, Cindy.

ME

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Cooke family with these comforting words: Jesus spoke of a time when ?all those in the memorial tombs? would ?come out? to renewed life in a paradise earth.?John 5:28, 29; Luke 23:43. True, that glowing hope does not take all the tragedy out of death. Jesus himself broke down and cried over the death of his friend Lazarus?and that was just minutes before he resurrected him! At least, then, death is not always final. The Bible calls death ?the last enemy? and says that it will ?be brought to nothing.? (1 Corinthians 15:26) In the coming Paradise, when Satan?s rule is a thing of the past, death will be gone forever. Its innocent victims will be reclaimed by resurrection. Then, when parents are reunited with the children they lost to death, we will at last be able to say, ?Death, where is your sting??Hosea 13:14. I am very sorry for the loss of your beloved daughter. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochet merylsway@gmail.com. For more information about God's Kingdom promises, please visit jw.org.
