“ I was so sorry to read of Danny's passing. I was in grammar school with him at Rockwood in Miss Mildred Hester's class. I too worked at Vanderbilt, and ran into Danny at the medical library. He was such a nice person. My sympathies to his family.

“ It was an honor and privilege to work with Dan at Vanderbilt Library. He always made the day brighter when he came around. I know he is with his Lord and Savior. May the family feel the comforting and strong arms of that Savior surrounding them.

“ Debbie, David, Heather & Rylie

Our hearts break for you in Danny's passing. He was a quiet, kind, gentle soul. Although our visits were far and few between we always enjoyed being around and talking to him. He will surely be missed by many! Love & prayers?..

“ We have lost a sweet man, a gentleman, who loved his family wholeheartedly. He gave friends support listening with compassion. He was a wonderful story teller and could tip me out of my chair with laughter at his jokes. It was a honor to be called friend by Dan.

“ You have been the best colleague and friend one can wish for during the twenty plus years we worked together. You represent in my mind the concept of a Southern gentleman. In my culture we use the term ?mensch? to describe you, a person of integrity and honor. You will be dearly missed by all of us. Rest in peace my friend.
