“ Bill, Marcia, Todd, Greg and families..

I didn't know about your Mom's passing until I read the Sunday paper tonight. Your mom (like your sister, Becky) was such a giving, caring, beautiful person who never met a stranger. Becky always told stories of her Mom who made all her clothes growing up. AND the cooking! I still make the Lawler Pound Cake! I loved each of them very much. When Becky died it left a hole in my heart and now I have two. I wish I had known so that I could have been there for all of you. Please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers.
