“ Margaret and Family, I know the sadness of sick parents and how hard it is to lose one and the other be very ill as well. God has a perfect plan and sustains His children as He works His will in our lives. I could not attend the service due to working, but know that my heart and thoughts are with you as they have been for months or longer. "God is our refuge and strength and a very present help in time of need." Love and prayers, Judy Pounders and family
