“ Carol, Skippy, and Family,

Your mother was always such a nice, sweet lady. Remember her for those irises she always had and my mother loved. I carried her to pick out what she wanted lots of times. And for the things she did for us at Rockwood School. She's resting safely and securely now in Heaven's Gardens with our Saviour.

“ Dear Skip, Carol, & all the family, There aren't enough words to describe the loss of our beloved Frances. She had the biggest, most generous heart of anybody! She always offered something to eat & drink for all who visited. She always kept her Bible close by. She was so willing to help others in their time of need. My parents loved her like no other! She was so sweet, special, and sincere. Our world & family is better because of her!! The angels in heaven are rejoicing with her even now! We love you Frances! Sending our love & condolences to all of you---Kathy & Tyran

“ I was one of her many children that she cared for. I talk about her often and can still smell an Iris a mile away. I have always kept different varieties in my yard and treat them just like she taught me. I also still eat orange slices and make sure my girls know who taught me to love them. She was a wonderful and caring lady!
