

James Brent "JB" Hooper II

January 30, 2004 - November 12, 2025

James Brent "J.B" Hooper, II
January 30, 2004 – November 12, 2025

On Wednesday, November 12, 2025, our son, James Brent "J.B." Hooper, II; passed away at his residence. He was born on January 30, 2004, to James Brent Hooper I & Stella Carol Hooper and lived all his 21 years in Russellville. He was the light of our lives.

JB graduated from Russellville High School in 2022. He had a heart bigger than Texas and would give his shirt off of his back to anyone in need. His passion was old cars, fixing them up with Marty, going antique shopping with his mom, and he was his dad's heartbeat. He loved old time music and had to have his Dr. Pepper's.

From the day he was born, he brought an abundance of joy to all of our lives every day and to everyone who was blessed to know him. He was kind and compassionate to all, young and old alike. He was always fun to be around and could always put a smile on your face. James Brent loved computers and was a wizard on them. He loved his job as a IT specialist at North Alabama Medical Center in Florence.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his parents, James Brent Hooper I and Stella Carol Hooper; Nana Geraldine Hooper; Grandmother Verna Fenn; aunt, Sandra Sandusky; uncle & aunt, Bill & Susan Hooper; special brother, Marty Fisher; and a gigantic host of other family and friends.

He is preceded death by his grandpas, Billy G. Hooper and Glen Spurgeon; aunts, Lesa Hooper and Alice Spurgeon; uncles, Ricky Sandusky and Harold Glen Spurgeon.

The visitation will be 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Monday, November 17, 2025, at Spry Memorial Chapel. The funeral will follow at 1:00 p.m. in the chapel with burial at Franklin Memory Gardens.

“ My prayers and sincere condolences to Brent and Carol in the loss of their son. Living in the Dallas area I haven't seen James Brent since he was a young boy, but have been blessed to have a close friendship with Brent for nearly 30 years. I'm heartbroken for Brent and Carol as I know JB was the light of their lives and will be missed mightily. May God comfort you both.

“ I have known James since he and Marty became best friends. Over the years he has been to my home many times. We spend a lot of time sitting in my kitchen talking about life in general. He was a joy to be around, wise beyond his years. He had a loving kind old soul, seeing the best in most people. As the saying goes, his glass was always half full. Loved how excited he got about his old cars and his vision to restore them all. He was loved and his memory will live in all our hearts who knew him. Never to be forgotten.

“ James Brent was such a kind and bright young man! I had the honor of being his 9th grade ELA teacher at RHS. I am honored to have been a small part of his life. And I'm so thankful he will forever hold a place in my heart. Praying for all who loved James Brent.

“ It's not like me and James were super super close. I hadn't seen him since we were about 15, and we're now 21. But I remember so many little details about James. I had known him since I believe preschool. He was the kindest soul, we always got along. I remember in middle school he started using these calligraphy pen to write on every assignment we had. I thought they were so cool, so he gave me one to have! Or I remember how no matter what class we were in, or what kind of desk we sat in he normally would prop himself up on one of his legs and lean on the desk to do his work. He was so proper, and so smart. If I ever needed a pencil, or a piece of paper or anything he had it for me. I sat right behind him in one of our classes and I'm sure he was tired of me sometimes asking him for paper constantly lol, come to think of it we actually had quite a few classes together. Another thing I remember is his relationship with Marty. Him and Marty have been best friends and so close for so many years. Marty and him have/had a friendship I hope I find one day. My heart hurts for you all so so bad. I'm praying so hard for yall. When I heard what happened I was so shocked, and I just hope he's happy and at peace now and is no longer suffering in his own mind...please allow yourselves times to grieve and mourn him. You all deserve it!

My sincerest condolences to Brent and Carol. Living in the Dallas area, I haven't seen James Brent since he was a young boy, but have been blessed to have a close friendship with his father Brent for nearly 30 years. My heart breaks for he and Carol as I know their son was the light of their lives and will be missed mightily.
