“ Sending my deepest condolences to the family. I was a classmate of Jimmy and played on the football team with him. Fond memories of high school experiences Class of 64 Russellville High School. I remember him running the projector at Kings Drive Inn while still in school then later buying it. He also did a good job in school of being on flag pole duty each day. We had a lot of guys named Jimmy in our class. All a great bunch. He will be missed. James “Jim” Steinecipher and family

Jimmy and I met in the mid 1970's when I drove my father's lawn mower to the Drive Inn to watch a movie. I paid and drove the mower right on in. Jimmy was a great guy, very personable but stern when necessary. Jimmy now has a glorified body. So sorry for your loss
