“ Jimmy was my favorite uncle. He was one of the good ones. We’ve been around the world together. Alabama, Cincinnati, Georgia and back to Alabama.

Jimmy loved my cooking and my mama’s cooking and he had a sweet tooth. For many years, he and Sis would come to my mother’s for our family gatherings. He couldn’t wait to eat something sweet that my mother had made. Sis would fuss saying that he ate too much. We would just laugh and ignore her.

I will never forget at my mother’s 90th birthday party Jimmy wanted our picture taken. He always told me I was his favorite and “I think a lot of you”! That’s old people talk for I love you.

Rest in paradise, Uncle Jimmy

I think a lot of you, too!
