“ Dear Paula, Uncle Ed, Steve, and Everyone in the Family;

Molley & I are so very sorry to hear about John Mark's passing. I remember so well all of us playing football and softball, and riding the dirt bikes, and just having such a good time at our sleep-overs. We all loved to watch scary movies on Friday and Saturday nights. He will always have such a special place in my heart.

Please know that all of you are in my constant prayers and I'm sending you all of my sympathies.

*With all our love,
Terri and Molley*
