“ Joe was one of the sweetest men, and the best step-dad a girl could want! He treated my sisters and I the same as he treated Tanya and Ashley! He was always wanting help everyone and he always took care of those he loved! You were the best companion and husband for my mother! Love you so much Joe and cannot wait to see you in Heaven!!

“ Joe was a good neighbor and really nice man...he took care of my old mare when I had to travel...fed her twice a day and made sure she had plenty of fresh water....he was a "shirt off of his back" kind of guy....he will be missed....said he had made peace with God so I hope to see him in Heaven...hope you will too
