We little knew that morning, that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

“ It hurts to know I can not call you and hear your funny Jokes or hear you say you will be ok Nana Banana. And hear the you make all the animal sounds you have on your farm. And hear you tell my kids, your nieces and nephew you love them and bring the biggest smiles to their faces. You will forever be in my heart and we love you more than words can express.💎
