

Justin Alexander Jewell

June 12, 2003 - May 1, 2025

Justin was a devoted husband and father. To know Justin was to love him. Justin never met a stranger, he the true definition of a heart of gold. If you seen him out you could guarantee you seen a big smile on his face. He was the hardest working man you'd ever meet. He loved all things "Cowboy" and spending his time with the people he loved the most especially his baby girl. His favorite saying was "Cowboy up" from his favorite movie and those words could not attest more to how he lived his life.

He was preceded in death his grandfather, Robert Schoonover.
