

Leland Earl Rea

October 22, 1955 - August 30, 2019

Leland Earl Rea, age 63, of Russellville, passed away on Friday, August 30, 2019 in a motorcycle accident.

Leland was a good and caring son who loved his Mama. He was a good PawPaw to his grandsons, Alex and Caleb. To know Leland was to love him. He loved his family and friends very much and loved riding motorcycles.

The visitation will be 5:00 - 9:00 p.m. Saturday, September 07, 2019 at Spry Memorial Chapel. The funeral will be at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, September 08, 2019 at Spry Memorial Chapel. Speaking at the funeral will be Lymann Rea, Richard "Lil Ritch" Aaron, and Michael Darling. After a motorcycle procession, the burial will be at Pleasant Hill Baptist Cemetery (Frog Pond). A memorial ride will follow with friends and family after the cemetery.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his mother, Wilma Jean "Mama Rea"; his son, Lymann and "favorite" daughter-in-law, Hollie; grandsons, Alex "Bubba" and Caleb "Dub" and a countless number of family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his Grandma and Grandpa Harris, Grandma & Grandpa Rea; and father, Earl Rea.

The pallbearers will be Charlie "Hawk" Hawkins, Doyle Young, Shannon Jones, Tim "Spud" Garrett, Shawn Lindsey, Anthony "Happy" Jack, Donnie Pentic, and Benji "Lil Rooster" Martin. The honorary pallbearers will be Tony Hurt, David "Pop Corn" McKelvey, Gary Doyle, and Coleman "P-Body" Mays. The four corners will be Jerry King, Johnny Holland, Steve Gandy, and Leon Reeves.

The family would like to thank the many friends for your thoughts, prayers, visits, and gifts of food during this time of our lives.

Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.

“ I did not know Leland Rea but, as a fellow motorcyclist, my deepest condolences go out to his family and friends. Hopefully his senseless passing at the hands of another will not go unanswered. God bless you, Sir. May your ride thru eternity be smooth and filled with the wonders that motorcycling brings.
