“Mrs. Barbara and family, praying it is a great day of celebration in Him and what He has done through your mom and her life. We love ya'll and pray that during this time your reflections are on how He blessed you with the time you had, and not the time you don't now.

“Mable was the sweetest most caring person. Even though we were not related by blood she always treated my brother and I as if we were her own grandkids. I didn't get to spend much time with her but the time that I did was precious and she always made me laugh and smile. She will be missed dearly. My thoughts and prayers are will you all.

Love, Traci
