He served as song leader and Sunday School teacher throughout his entire Christian life, which was about 68 years. He worked in Detroit, Michigan as a machinist and also at the Chrysler Manufacturing Plant. He attended Cas Tech School in Michigan and came home to start his own hometown business in Russellville,

Jackson TV and Warehouse Furniture. His main hobby was singing and writing songs. He and Betty had a program on TV called "Wells of Living Water" for about five years. Singing was a great inspiration for him. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends and his Sunday School Class at Calvary Baptist Church, of whom he loved dearly. Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.

“ A great mentor, friend and father. Marion will be deeply missed by all the lives he touched in his earthly walk and is now reunited in his family circle. The seed of my career and livelihood was planted by Marion many years ago and has now blossomed. It is a testament to the love that Marion had for God. He will be deeply missed.
