

Marlon Joil McAlister, Jr.

May 26, 1969 - November 19, 2019

Marlon Joil McAlister, Jr., passed away on Tuesday, November 19, 2019 at his residence.

Joil was a very private person, but he loved fishing and hunting. He loved his animals, especially taking care of his cows.

The visitation will be 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. Thursday, November 21, 2019 at Spry Memorial Chapel. The service will follow at 2:00 p.m. in the chapel, with Bro. Willie Cummings officiating. The burial will be at Chestnut Ridge Cemetery in Phil Campbell.

He is preceded in death by his father, Marlon McAlister; brother, Teddy Allan McAlister; grandparents, Fred & Flossie McAlister, Rufus & Eula Baker; uncles, J.C. Baker and Marvin "JW" McAlister.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his son, Andrew McAlister; mother and stepdad, Janet & Cecil James; siblings, Tina Ortiz (Pedro), Becky White, Michael James (Lucy), Baretta Saint; aunts & uncles, Betty & Olen McAlister, Bobby & Faye Baker, Virginia Pinkard; and several nieces & nephews, great-nieces & nephews.

The pallbearers will be Greg Baker, Craig Saint, Ryan Saint, Brett Saint, Michael James, and Tony Thrasher.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Doug Hallman for checking on Joil, also to Charles Adcox, Franklin County Coroner and Spry Memorial Chapel for the care given to our family.

Spry Memorial Chapel assisted the family.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ So sorry for your loss. May God comfort you all. Much Love, Danny Holcombe

DANNY HOLCOMBE - November 20, 2019 at 12:00 AM

LC

“ I am sorry for your loss. I am praying for you and your family. God bless.

Larica Clark - November 20, 2019 at 12:00 AM