

Mattie Taylor Fuller

May 13, 1917 - February 2, 2016

Mattie Vera Taylor Fuller, age 98, Madison, (formerly of Russellville), passed away on Tuesday, February 02, 2016 at Madison Hospital. Mrs. Fuller was born May 13, 1917 in the Frankfort Community. She graduated from Belgreen High School and went on to become an elementary school teacher. She enjoyed being able to travel with her husband, Percy, and later she enjoyed being able to attend the Russellville Senior Center and considered them family. She was recognized as Senior Citizen of the month and also awarded the Russellville Senior Center Rook Tournament Champion. She loved life and had a wonderful sense of humor that her friends and family will truly miss. Mrs. Fuller loved to cook and was known for her fried apple pies. In her last few days, she shared her favorite words to live by, "Be honest and tell the truth." The visitation will be 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. Friday, February 05, 2016 at Spry Memorial Chapel in Russellville, with the funeral following at 11:30 a.m. in the funeral home chapel. Officiating the service will be Bro. Gerald Ricketts and Bro. Greg Chandler. Burial will be at Franklin Memory Gardens. She was preceded in death by her husband, Percy Fuller; her parents, Romie & Bertha (Howard) Taylor; brothers, Chester Taylor (wife, Abby) of Tuscumbia, Owen Taylor (wife, Lula) of Chattanooga, and Curtis Taylor, of Madison. She leaves to cherish her memory her sister-in-law, Carolyn Taylor; brother-in-law, Lomax Fuller (wife, Ann); and several nieces & nephews. The pallbearers will be Charles Kilpatrick, Curtis Taylor, Jr., Steve Taylor, Bob Taylor, Jimbo Taylor, David Fuller, Donald Hovater, and James Colburn. Spry Memorial Chapel
