“ I loved my brother we had our ups and downs and I always tried to help him and he helped me when I moved to South Carolina the last time, but the last few years we were kept apart but I will not go into the reasons, we fought when we were younger and when I was buying cars for people after Katrina I gave him a couple of trucks he wanted and he was one of my biggest fans when I started playing music I think about him many times and I hope he finally gets the peace he deserves I love you bro

“ I will miss my big brother, more than I can say. He's always been there as long as I can remember, so many moments to rescue, and so many more of joy. My favorite memories are coming to his house of my kids, and one of my grandkids when we lived in Horn Lake, we were always welcome and it was always a great time. I remember him getting between me and our biological father, and taking the blows that were meant for me. You were always a champion for those that could not defend themselves.. I will always love you.

“ Norman is my big brother. He made sure no one messed with me. Picture this. He and I won a disco dancing contest at the 2001 club. All the girls wanted to meet him. He spent most of his life with the one he loved and if he can he is still protecting her and his babies. So proud he got his theology degree. I'll miss you forever

“ So sorry to hear of his loss. Very gentle man, caring man, and dedicated husband. Have so many good memories of this tall gentle giant. It is a tragic loss. Love and hope for his serving family. May God watch over the family and especially Tonya. Love you all.

“ Norman was a great neighbor and friend. After the 2011 tornado destroyed our home, we purchased the house across the road from the Hawkins. Norman never failed to check on me and my husband several times a week and the friendship was formed from those visits. He was a kind person and he and my husband often ended up having great bible conversations and discussions on their weekly visits. Our prayers are with Tonya and family, I know they will truly miss him as will our entire neighborhood. I am thankful for the Lord directing us to this neighborhood and this kind and gentle neighbor/friend.
