“ My pa was such a caring man he loved being home listening to CMT all day. Swinging in his swing in the back yard and memories of the pigs across the st that was his. He brung a horse home for me and had it tied up at the back door, granny made him take it back....lol riding in the red ford truck standing in the back holding on to the black cross bar wind blowing in my hair. Eating rice and sugar or corn bread in milk. These are just a few of those precious moments I shared with him. Love him always miss him forever. May he rest in peace with my granny the love they shared made me who lam today.
