“ Phil is my first cousin so I've known him literally all my life. He always was so much fun to be around with his quick wit and sense of humor. Most importantly, he was an honorable man of God who exemplified the love and teachings of Jesus in caring for his neighbors. He shared the fruits of his labors gained from his talents for leading successful businesses. Phil will be missed here on earth, but we rejoice knowing he is in the presence of his Lord and Savior. where all pain is wiped away. We will see you again someday, cousin, and we can laugh together for all eternity.

Knowing this will be a readjustment period for you in the coming days and months ahead I know you will need help and I want you to know we will be there for you if you need anything. Please call us anytime. I know you're a strong lady and you will be OK with the Lord's help, but you have our Christian family who you can turn to also. Please do. We love you very much.
