“ I am deeply saddened to hear about Phillip?s transition. He is deeply loved and cherished. After purchasing the land adjoining his farm, we became fast friends and truly brothers. Phillip walked daily in love and care for all he loved. Through our many talks, I feel I?ve known him all our lives. Rest in peace, Brother Phillip! We will miss your presence, but forever hold onto those great memories. May the grace, peace, and comfort of the Lord be with the family as they navigate this time of grief. God Bless!

“ Phillip and I were friends, for 28 years we were inseparable. We hunted, we fished, we traveled and we spent quality time together. Phillip was one of the most generous people I have ever known. I was there by his side the day he bought his farm. That was one of the happiest moments of his life. He was so happy. From that moment on his farm project turned into his heart's dream. I loved spending time with Phillip getting fields ready to hunt, hanging stands working from first light until past dark. It all was a learning experience. ♦ Phillip loved to cook and he loved a great steak. The Phillip I knew was patient and kind. Some how we grew apart over the years and other friends appeared and took my place. When I look back now as an adult I cherish those cool days on the tractor disc in tow really feeling like I was accomplishing something that gave me self worth. Phillip was my best friend for many years and I will never forget the memories we shared. ♦ For a very long time I can say he was an awesome person that taught me so much about hunting, farming and so many other things. ♦ You will always be remembered in my heart. ♦

“ I don?t even know what to say. When I got the text from Melanie telling me that Phillip had died I was stunned. My heart is breaking for all of you. Phillip was the best boss I ever had. Our crew at ?the manor? was like family. I am forever grateful for everything that Phillip and Betty did for me. I wouldn?t have made it through the years of raising my kids if it had not been for the Wade family. My prayers are with all of you.💎
