“ To Jackie, Janice, Albert and families.

Our hearts go out to each of you. We have been so fortunate to have all of you as part of our family all these years, know that you are all loved and that you will always be in our prayers.

Ray was a very special person to us siblings. We really loved him and he was a blessing to all of us.

We will all see him when we get to heaven. Remember all the good times that each of us have had with him. God give each of you peace and understanding during this time of loss.

*Love you all,
Marilyn and Family*
