“ I will miss you more than words can describe paw paw. Every memory I will cherish deeply. You were the greatest, funniest, most amazing person I have ever had the privilege to meet. It was an honor to be able to call you family. I love you, and will never forget your voice as you called my name. I just wish I had come to visit more often. I know you are watching over me in Heaven right now, and I know each gust of wind will be your way of holding me in your arms one more time. I love you forever and always.
