“ I'm so sorry to hear of Ruth Ann's passing. As many have said, she was precious and such a hard worker. I remember our school days at Rockwood and then Russellville, riding the school bus and all of you kids filing out to board the bus. Those were such happy times. She did my hair for years. I know she got her good cooking skills from your sweet mom who, I always thought, started the sausage biscuit at the Iron Gate Restaurant. My sympathies to all and may God continue to bless all of you.
