“ You were not only my aunt but you were a mother to me, you were just scratching my back to sleep a few days before you passed even know you were tired. You were selfless and my heart is shattered that your gone. I love you.

“ My heart was sadden today when I learned my nurse, the sweet little angel God had sent to take care of me has passed on. I send my condolences to the family. Shannon had a kindred spirit. She gave me a sense of comfort and peace during a difficult time in my life. I love you Shannon and I will miss you.

“ It breaks my heart knowing I won?t be having a morning talk before work or both do us venting about life every few days. My babies Camden, Casen and I talk about you all the time. We all cried in bed thinking about you and my boys hugged me so tight. I have beautiful memories and share them with the boys whom love you. I love and miss you so much.

“ I graduated from the WSCC sonography program with Shannon. We rode to school some together, studied together and shared so many fun times. After graduating we all went our separate ways, but we kept in touch thanks to social media. Shannon was so encouraging to me in some of my toughest moments. She would send me words of encouragement. She truly was a bright spot on this earth. Her absence on earth will leave behind a dark spot for so many, but her light shines so bright in heaven now and one day we will reunite with her. Until then we will try to be a light to others as you were to all of us. My prayers to your family today and for the difficult days to come.
