“ Dear Thelma,
Thank you for your many years of hard work during your time at Tharptown School and for your commitment to providing us kids with meals that were made with care. I remember you liked to joke around and have fun even when working hard, and will always remember your awesome peanut butter cookies. May you Rest In Peace. 🌸🙏👩🍳

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Thelma. I will always remember working at Tharptown with her. She always made me laugh. She gave money so many times to children to buy extra food. She will be missed.
